OLH Inc. Announces New Majority Owner

Company retains minority status as a Women-Owned Business.

Atlanta, Georgia, January 12, 2009: OLH Inc., a construction management services firm, announces Ms. Gina Bennett as the new majority owner of the company. Ms. Bennett will assume the responsibilities of President and CEO of the company. Ms. Myka Harris-Barbato, the former majority owner, retains a portion of ownership as Executive Vice President of the firm.

Ms. Bennett's entire career has been spent working in engineering and construction-related fields. She has been employed by consulting and construction companies as well as public agencies. She is joining OLH Inc. from Moreland Altobelli Associates, Inc. where she was the Director of Business Development. Prior to this, she spent six years with Earth Tech, Inc. providing marketing and business development services.

OLH Inc. will continue to maintain its Small and Disadvantaged Business Enterprise status as a woman-owned business.
